

CANDIDATE INFORMATION

*Position: SEA Delegate to the NEA Representative Assembly
6 open positions*

Phyllis Ardagh

In the last few years, I have had the opportunity to attend the local IEA convention here in Chicago. It was a great experience, watching, participating in the convention, a true representation of our democratic society. This year, the national convention will be taking place in our nation's capital.

Adriana Caballero

NEA Hispanic Caucus and Human and Civil Rights Committee member, new to this local, but very active at my previous. I would be honored to represent you and be a voice for our students this summer. I am ready to do the work, just need to get to DC first!

Kara Zielinski

9th year as speech-language pathologist at Enders, SEA building rep. (2010-present), SEA elections chair (2011-present), SEA secretary (2016), Region 35 vice chair (2013-present). I am committed to being a voice for SEA at the national level and intend to bring back ideas and information to make our local strong.

Daniel Argueta

It would be my honor to represent you as a delegate at our NEA Representative Assembly. I will continue to advocate and support those issues that are important to you and our students.

Kelly O'Reilly

I have been a building rep. for 3 years as a member of the Region 35 council this year. I have been in district for 10 years and as a special education teacher, I feel I have a unique opinion and view to represent SEA.

Faiza Ahearn

This 2015-16 year I have learned a great deal with regards to the process "Union Democracy" at work. It has helped me to better understand our system at a local and higher level. I would be honored to represent the staff and our district in fairness and equality for all.

Cynthia Dressler

SEA Building Rep; SEA Rep to Region 35; SEA Appraisal Chair; Attended 4 IEA Representative Assemblies and 1 NEA Representative Assembly; Member of the IEA Early Childhood Task Force.

Sandra Bostrom

I have represented our membership for the past seven years as a building representative, a Region 35 representative, an IEA delegate, an NEA delegate, on the contract negotiations committee, and on several other committees. I would be honored to continue to represent our membership at the upcoming NEA Representative Assembly.
